New educational website www.rok1989.pl

On June 3, 2009 the IPN has launched a new educational website www.rok1989.pl. You can find there the calendar of events of 1989 in Poland and in the other former Soviet-bloc countries. The website also features a short synthetic history, a selection of documents, accounts of the witnesses, a photo gallery, video fragments, etc. The aim of the site is to present the Polish role in the events of 1989, compared to the other countries in the region.

The English version of the website can be found at www.year1989.pl
